

Elicia Calhoun Seminars

March 10-12, 2012

Elicia is an internationally respected top level handler and competitor, having worked in the sport of dog agility for over 17 years. She continues to represent the USA at top international competitions, such as the European Open and Fionia Cup, while staying at the top of her game in the United States in AKC and USDAA National Championship events.

Elicia is known for her energy and enthusiasm. She is a sought-after presenter for any topic, any level, any breed, and in any language. Elicia is a gifted and entertaining teacher who connects with each dog/handler to get the most out of their team in order to reach their potential. Regardless of any limitations, identifies the strengths in both the dog and the handler, and tailors all communication, handling and training programs to meet the needs of each individual team. She makes learning fun!

Saturday March 10 $175 - limited to 10 working spaces 8am-4pm (with lunch break)

Handling and Course Analysis – appropriate for those training &/or trialing at the Open & Excellent levels

This session will be tailored to the needs of those in attendance; topics may include handler body language, timing, positioning, speed changes, verbal cues and various crosses. Establishing and maintaining a solid connection with your dog, mental exercises to refine your game, identifying and developing critical training skills for your dog, correct use and timing of rewards, games and problem-solving to continue building focus and drive, proof skills, enhance teamwork consistency and get the most from your dog.

Saturday evening session $90 - limited to 6 working spaces, $40 auditing 5:30pm-9pm

Foundations & FUNDamentals – appropriate for young/green dogs that can do most obstacles along with more seasoned dogs already competing

Topics may include foundation skills, teamwork, consistency, reward systems, and games to build & maintain focus & drive.

Sunday March 11 $175 - limited to 10 working spaces 8am-4pm (with lunch break)

Turns, Turns, Turns – appropriate for those training and trialing at the Excellent/Masters level

morning - "Specialty Handling Techniques" - Start learning the 'Secrets to Winning'. Faster cues mean faster dog performances and more top placements! afternoon - Applying the "Specialty Handling Techniques" to your Excellent/Masters level courses. Elicia spent a month in Europe and learned some AWESOME moves from the top Finnish trainers who also dominated the EO placements this year. They have over 34 different types of turns for different situations. . . very cool, very fast and fun! These techniques allow for incredibly tight turns while allowing the handler to continue moving quickly and bettering their position on course. This one is truly a MUST ATTEND session. EVERYONE who has attended a session introducing these turns LOVES them and wants more!

Auditing is unlimited - $75 full day, $40 half day, or $125 both Saturday and Sunday

Monday March 12 Private lessons with Elicia $130/hour email jrbrasen@gmail.com to confirm availability & time slot

Location: Seminar will be held inside the arena at Happy Dog Ranch 2917 Bearwallow Road, Ashland City, TN 37015 Located about 30 minutes North West of Nashville. The arena has a 3/4" rubber mat surface and the equipment is USDAA/AKC spec.
